

The FIRST Brand in Low-Maintenance Decking

In the 1990s, Trex pioneered the launch of low-maintenance deck boards made of durable composite materials. They've remained a proven and trusted giant in the industry ever since. In fact, many people use the words "Trex" and "composite decking" interchangeably.

Proven Quality You Can Count On

Trex remains popular decades later for its proven and consistent quality. You can count on any Trex deck board for a beautiful, low-maintenance deck that will look great for years to come.

Enjoy The Outdoors Without Extra Chores

At the core of the Trex brand is a commitment to low-maintenance decks. Trex composite boards never need to be painted or stained, and don't warp, crack, split or splinter. With less maintenance, you can spend more time relaxing on your deck!
